ANTI-RAGGING WORKSHOP ON 04/09/2023

Ragging is a serious concern that can have detrimental effects on individuals' physical and emotional well-being. Institute of Leadership, Entrepreneurship & Development (iLEAD) aims at fostering a safe and respectful environment on our campus by educating our student community about the negative consequences of ragging. Thus, Anti-Ragging Committee has organized for a workshop that will provide insights into the legal implications of ragging, discuss strategies to prevent and address such incidents effectively. The workshop will feature expert speaker Advocate Shamik Bagchi who will engage all the students from every semester in discussions, interactive sessions, and informative presentations. It's an opportunity for us to come together, reaffirm our commitment to a respectful and inclusive campus culture, and collectively take a stand against any form of ragging. For any queries or further information, please feel free to reach out to the undersigned person.
