

B.Sc in INTERIOR DESIGN

4 year undergraduate degree course at
iLEAD affiliated to MAKAUT

Interior design is a career for those who are passionate about designing beautiful and fascinating spaces that make living or working more vibrant and comfortable.

While creating a design, an interior designer has to stay updated about the building plan, safety issues, global trends, client's needs and preferences, local culture and much more.

In today's date becoming an interior designer with no academic backing may make the career path ahead very difficult. iLEAD conducts a sustainable degree course of B.Sc in Interior Design that provides students with training that is required to understand the business and environmental needs. Our course would give you theoretical knowledge along with hands on practical experience during the tenure of the program.

At the iLEAD School of Creativity, budding talents are nurtured across media, animation, and design disciplines, fostering innovation and honing skills of tomorrow's creators shaping the next generation visionary artists, designers and professionals.
